HUDSON RIVER DINNER CRUISE with LEN TANTILLO

Sunday, July 19, 2009, 3-9 pm

$85/members of RCHS, Historic Albany, and Columbia County HS

$95 not-yet-members

2009 Times Union "Best Local Artist" and historian Len Tantillo narrates scenic and historical highlights along the Hudson as we cruise from Troy to the Athens Lighthouse and back aboard the luxurious Captain J.P. II, enjoying a delicious dinner along the way. Proceeds benefit the Historical Society's Sustainability Campaign.

SAVE THE DATE! RENNELAER COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY ANNUAL GALA BENEFIT in honor of ANNE CARROLL

Recipient of the 2009 Hart-Cluett Award

Thursday, October 8, 2009 Franklin Plaza Ballroom, Troy

Please join us as we honor Anne, a long time supporter of RCHS. Her passion for history includes her role as Mrs. Hart's mischievous housemaid, "Bridget," in the school education program; sponsoring workshops for realtors on the value of Troy's many architectural assets; and generous RCHS benefactor and board member. Her warmth and enthusiasm are well known in the entire community. This year's Gala will feature raffles and entertainment you won't want to miss! Invitations will be mailed in August.

NEW EXHIBITION - "Getting There: Historians in Training Explore Travel Through Time"

A piece of sheet music, a section of trolley track, an elegant, if faded, carriage, and a rusting horseshoe. All of these objects are among the transportation-related artifacts researched by this year's class of Historians in Training. Come to the exhibit and see the fascinating stories from the past that they discovered. Through Fall 2009.

Please return with payment (check preferred) to RCHS at 57 Second Street, Troy, NY 12180. You may also purchase tickets online at www.rchsonline.org/tickets.html. All contact information is needed to confirm membership status.
